In the endeavor to bring the consciousness of the Holy Spirit into active radiation through the energy of the individual lifestream, I shall, again and again, stress the great need which arises from the life imprisoned in the shadows for the Comfort which, alone, comes from the Presence of God.

Comfort is not the negative condonement of imperfect patterns of thought, feeling and action, but it is the positive, kindly, encouraging, enlightening consciousness conveyed by thought, word and feeling by which the enshadowed one may self-consciously cooperate with the irrefutable and impersonal Laws of Love, Harmony, Purity and Perfection whose Causative Centers will yield, in effects, only Peace.

Comfort, like every other quality of the Godhead, is interpreted by each man according to his place upon the Path. To some it means no more than to lie upon a bed of ease, freed from the necessity and responsibility of sustaining the body's life. To another, it is embodied in the presence of a loved one; to still another, an occupation of delight to the natural talent of the soul for the essence of comfort received.

In examination of the consciousness, we will find that, like happiness and peace, mankind, and students as well, will find that the motivating power within their search for comfort lies within what they can get out of association with God,

Master, man or beast; but the mystic law of the universal works upon the principle that the self-conscious intelligence must give, of itself, the first impulse carrying the vibration of the quality that he desires, on the return current, to receive. A smile begets a smile, and a frown begets a frown. A man must be a friend to have a friend. He must give up one breath to receive another.

It is, therefore, My express and deep heart-felt desire to help you, individually, to comprehend the Peace which you can enjoy when you become a Comforting Presence to life; for then will you experience the active return of comfort through every externalized form, the invisible ethers, and the Great Beings who have foregone the glories of the Higher Spheres to remain the Comforting Presence by which mankind can sustain their life and progress in a world whose aura is so heavily charged with shadow that it would not be possible, even for the Elemental Kingdom, to sustain a physical garment through which the Life Flame might find expression, were it not for Their Presence in the Universe.

When you call to your own Great God-Self and to Me for the FEELING and desire to be a comfort to life, you will find opened within the realms of your own consciousness a new attitude toward the life around you, and that which has seemed a battle for survival will become a joy - each day fraught with new opportunities to feel your reason for being, in externalizing Comfort to life.

Blessings and Love,
